Tässä ovat tähän mennessä kaikki tämän vuoden AM-QSL:t, kun nyt sattuu olemaan vuoden eka ilmoitukseni. Heinäkuun lopun hienot ulakelit pääosin pilasi kesän ainoa ulkomaanmatka. Kesän ainoat häät puolestaan olivat kesis- viikonlopun lauantaina. LEM-pedis sentään muuten onnistui hyvin, kelit vain olisivat saaneet olla paremmat. No ensi vuonna sitten kaikki menee paljon paremmin....
Hyvää Joulua ja Uutta Vuotta 2004!

GUATEMALA

Radio Verdad 4052.5. Here is interesting extract from a letter I received recently from Dr. Edgar Amilcar Madrid along with QSL card etc.

“We went on air on February 25th, year 2000, and we have celebrated our second anniversary already. You may not believe me, but we have been transmitting with only 280 watts power, due to some governmental limitations and some damage. Our transmitter is a new 1 KW Solid State Omnitronix, produced in Italy. Several Guatemalan radio technicians have thought that we are transmitting with 10 KW power, because it comes out so strong. I have made several trips in our country, and the signal is very strong. But we still need to make some adjustments. Our antenna is a bipolar 12 meter high, in order not to miss reaching the closest city, Chiquimula, which we are doing nicely. Our station is a non-profit educational and evangelical effort. We start out transmissions at 5.00 o'clock in the morning and go off the air by 11.00 pm [UT -6]. I'm including a paper that illustrates the countries which have reported Radio Truth, our fourth QSL card, our banner and our new 2003 calendar. Our frequency range is 4.0475 - 4.0575, with an average of 4.0525 MHz. SW1 75 meter band, transmitting from “Horeb Mount” and “Glory's Hill” in Chiquimula, Guatemala. We still don't have any call letters, but we think they are going to be: TGAV, which means: TG = Transmissions of Guatemala. A =

Identification of the Eastern area of Guatemala. V = Our particular identification as “Radio Verdad” (Radio Truth) We have moved our studios to Chiquimula City and are transmitting up to 11.00 pm Guatemala time.

Lightning destroyed more than one half of our main SW transmitter, hence our 280 Watts power. This happened on June 6th, year 2003 despite having three lightning rods in the area and some other protection and we had much difficulty locating replacement transistors to replace those burned out but we eventually did receive them and are now back on 1 kw power. Now we are on the way to obtain an AM MW frequency (via Ian Cattermole, Dec NZ DX Times via DXLD)

MEXICO

The XERMX blobmitter is back! Dec 9 at 1448 heard strong extremely distorted FMy signal centred on 9440, in Spanish mentioning México. Nothing matching audible on 9705, where there was a het and some European or ME station, which I read somewhere had recently moved onto there, and it had a 6-pip timesignal at 1500, but it was 8 seconds late! Also checked +265 from 9705, around 9970 and nothing there but splash from WEWN 9955; nor any blob above 10 MHz. Clinched at 1450 by \ to 11770, which had fair signal but almost no modulation from XERMX. I find it rather strange that hardly anyone else is reporting the blobmitter; listening to it is certainly unpleasant,

but it's DX news (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

BOLIVIA

4722.86 kHz unID Bolivia 17/Dic/2003 - 0000 UTC Could it be Radio Yura? I have a long recording so I will try tomorrow to get an ID. Up to 0000 UTC much talking both spanish and indian language. Said one time "Radiofonico SEPRÁ" but if it was an ID I do not know. After 0100 UTC nonstop music, mostly mexican and some cumbias. Yura have always been under 4720 kHz as far as I know. (BM-SWB)
This unID station was heard at the same time in Ecuador, Sweden, USA and Brasil. I have just finished listening to a recording I made last night. Thanks also to Henrik Klemetz for his information (in portugues). I o not understand portugues very well but I think Henrik says that it could be Radio Yura. On the other hand says Robert Wilkner in Florida, USA that Radio Yura that night(?) was on their normal frequency, NOT on 4722.86 kHz. (BM-SWB)

The ID is not difficult to locate on the file. It is not particularly garbled either. But it's hard to understand. Without a geographic knowledge of the area it's all but impossible to get. To me it's Radio Uncía. Anyone will find it on a decent Bolivian map. Time will tell if this is it. Checking out Uncía on the web I find that the Potosí Tomás Frías University opened a local branch in this town the other year. The FM frequency is anybody's guess, but it ends in .3. Guayaquil. A newsprogram called "El noticiero a las 6", "Naranjal en la noticia". It's an harmonic from mediumwave 1520 kHz. (BM-SWB)

4772.86 kHz Radio Centinela del Sur, Loja
(4/Dic/2003 - 1055 UTC.)
Reactivated! I have not noted the station for a long time. 3-4 years ago the station was coming in with good signal. Thereafter I have had the station just one week or so with very poor reception in april 2002. Centinela before this day always have been on exactly 4770.07 kHz. This morning on 4772.86 kHz with very good strength. Advertisements and local news from the Loja region. Very positive news indeed!

PERU

2550v kHz Radio Uno, Chiclayo
(27th of November 2003 - 1115 UTC.)
I have had this station the last 2-3 days with religious program in // with Radio Imperio, Chiclayo on 4386.60 kHz. This morning a birthday-greeting program and local IDs.
Drifting between 2545 - 2560 kHz. It's a harmonic from 1280 kHz. Quite good signal.

4570.75v kHz Radio Naylamp, Lambayeque
0140 UTC (15 Dic 03)
I think this is the unID Dave Valko has heard on 4562 kHz. I will send the recording to Dave, it is from this evening with 2 IDs, the one at the end of the recording is 100%. Good signal but heavy distorted signal and drifting.
(BM-SWB)

4890 kHz Radio Macedonia, Arequipa.
Received an English VL from Chris Gardner, for a English report and CD of the recording sent to their Arequipa address. The form VL has a computer-generated logo and watermark. Chris says they don't have souvenirs yet because they still don't have the budget. The sentence reads a little cryptically though it looks like they intend generating revenue through advertising. A QSL card and "souvenirs" will be sent when they're available. Although a form letter, there is some customisation as Chris refers to the CD.

5384.23 kHz Radio Huarmaca, Provincia de

Huancabamba, Departamento de Piura
(2/Dic/2003 - 2350 UTC.)
Reactivated peruvian, you still have a chance to hear them this evening - the male DJ said they were on the air until 0200 UTC. Peruvian music and greetings. Is transmitting on FM and shortwave.
Info from "Ventanaperú": 2.- Provincia de Huancabamba, cuya capital es Chanchaque. Sus distritos son: El Carmen de la Frontera, Huancabamba, Huarmaca, Lalaquiz, San miguel de El Faique, Sónдор, Sondorillo; con una población total de 125,458 hab. (BM-SWB)

5628.80v kHz Radio Cielo, Chiclayo
(11/Dic/2003- 2355 UTC.)
The last year I have noted Radio Cielo just 1 or 2 times and this is the first time I have recorded an ID with QTH: "Desde la ciudad de Chiclayo transmite Radio Cielo". Good signal but distorted audio. Is still on air when I'm sending this information.

R. Coremarca, Bambamarca (listed on WRTH
2003 on 780 MW and 5645.6 SW [but not reported any time recently, I think --- gh]) suffered an attack on its transmitter site on Tue 2, Dec 2003, when a group of strangers entered there to destroy some equipment and to take others, according to press reports from

SURINAM

Dear Mr. George Maroti, Thank you for your email, We are pleased to hear that our new Omnitronix 1000 watt transmitter is giving a better signal. We put the transmitter on the air on Friday 12 December and are running it at 500 watt now for testing purposes. We are using the Omni 1000isw. Wishing you happy holidays, (Charles Vervuurt, R. Apintie, via Maroti,

UNID

3204.98 kHz Radio Mía, unknown QTH is still there!

(Quito 14/Dic/2003 20:20) I heard the station with clear ID 7th of November. Thereafter I almost every day can trace the signal but it's very weak without audio. Very stable signal, I have noted the station between 3204.97 - 3204.99 kHz. This morning I heard Radio Mía with audio for the first time after 7th of November. YL talking and some religious(?) music but without any ID. Can anyone out there trace the carrier??

URUGUAY

CX12 Radio Oriental, Montevideo (MW 770 with shortwave CXA12, 11735, very irregular, monitored lately on occasion of a couple of soccer matches) has a new owner: the Uruguayan Catholic Church. Until now it had been owned by the family clan of the Romay Salvos (Daniel & Hugo Romay Salvo, the later passed away a couple of weeks ago) along with Radio Montecarlo and TV channels both air and cable.

It will inaugurate on next Dec 8, with no major changes, since name remains, main programmes and presenters will be preserved, also the news will be from CX 20 Radio Montecarlo and from the technical point of view, xter both SW and MW remain the same, in the current xter site (the one of Montecarlo).

But here are the changes...

New addr: calle Cerrito 475, 11000 Montevideo (in the Old City quarter, think it is beneath the venerable Cathedral or "Iglesia Matriz, de Montevideo)

New Stn director:

Presbítero Jorge Techera
(note: Presbítero = presbyter)

Tel Nrs: Main +916 11 30 (enables extensions, fax included) Studios: +915 08 98 y +915 40 05
a slogan like this has been already hrd on the air
"La Nueva Radio Oriental, La Radio Católica del Uruguay"

I will try to speak with Mr. Velazquez who seems to be the person to query about their SW plans (there was an idea under the former management to convert the AM multi fqcy xter into SSB...)
also WWW and email addr info pending.
